SULTAN ABU BAKAR MOSQUE

Built in 1892, this beautiful mosque is situated on a hill overlooking the Straits of Tebrau. Its design is influenced by Victorian and Mughal Indian architecture. Simple ornamentation on the arches resemble the Man Mandir Palace in Gwalior, India, while the twin columns at the facade depict Victorian architecture. The main prayer hall is rectangular in shape with a five-ridge roof known as 'Bumlung Perabung'. This mosque was commissioned by the late Sultan Abu Bakar, who was famed as the 'Father of Modern Johor'. Visitors are advised to dress modestly while visiting the mosque area.

DESARU COAST

Desaru Coast is a premium integrated destination resort comprising the Desaru Coast Adventure Waterpark, hotels and resorts. The waterpark offers rides and games for visitors of all ages. Be sure to try out the Tidal Wave Beach, one of the biggest wave pools in Southeast Asia. Don't miss RipSide, Kak's Revenge, Wild Whirl, Surf Wall and many more rides for endless fun.

SULTAN IBRAHIM BUILDING

Malaysia

Situated in the heart of Southeast Asia, Malaysia is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and verdant national parks that are teeming with numerous species of birds and wildlife.

Malaysia's sun-drenched islands and beaches are home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks and heritage buildings. There is something to charm every visitor, be it a history-lover, nature-enthusiast, sun-seeker or an avid shopper. Explore the length and breadth of the country to discover the many attractions of Malaysia!

Johor

Johor is Malaysia's southern gateway. Linked to Singapore via the Causeway (Tambak Johor) and the Second Link (LINKEDUA), its strategic location leads to its encouraging growth over the years, making it one of the country's most developed states. The state's wealth of natural attractions includes verdant rainforests, cascading waterfalls, thriving wetlands and mesmerising tropical islands. Comprising eight main districts, the state's vast landscape comprises sweeping plantations, well-manicured golf lawns, tranquil fishing villages, lush nature reserves and golden sandy beaches.

GETTING THERE

By Air
You can fly to Johor from several destinations in Malaysia. Johor is also accessible from Sabah and Sarawak by air. Senai International Airport is situated 32 km from Johor Bahru.

By Road
Johor Bahru is 330 km or a four-hour drive from Kuala Lumpur via the North-South Expressway. Both the Johor-Singapore Causeway and the Second Link Expressway connect Singapore to Johor as well as the rest of the peninsula. Bus services to Johor from major cities and towns in the peninsula are available throughout the day. Tickets must be purchased early during peak seasons.

By Rail
Keretapi Tanah Melayu Berhad (KTMB) or the national railway connects Johor to other states in the peninsula and also Singapore. JB Sentral Railway Station is the southernmost station in the country. Other stations include Kempas Baru, Kluang, Kulai, Labis, Paloh, Renggam and Segamat.

By Sea
From Singapore, Tanjung Belongkor is the entrance point for ferries. Ferry services are also available from Batam and Tanjung Pinang in Indonesia to Johor Bahru International Ferry Terminal.

GETTING AROUND

You can book a taxi at the Larkin Taxi Station, bus stations, hotels and shopping complexes. It is advisable to request that the taxi meter be switched on or agree on the fare before you begin the ride. Alternatively, rent a car from car rental companies at the airport and bus stations. E-hailing services are also available in Johor.

SHOPPING

Johor has an extensive range of shopping malls, craft bazaars, duty-free outlets, hypermarkets and night markets. Many of these outlets can be found in Johor Bahru and other towns. Select from a huge variety of local and imported products ranging from designer labels, fashion accessories, electrical appliances to ceramics and handicrafts.

DINING

Don't forget to sample the mouthwatering spread of delicacies such as Laksa Johor, Nasi Briyani Gam, Lontong and Mee Bandung. Other not-to-be-missed specialties include Mee Rebus, Kacang Pongol, Asam Pedes and Otak-Otak. Seafood lovers should head to Kukup, about 10 minutes drive from Tanjung Piai, for a feast of seafood delights.
