Shopping

Visitors can find handicrafts made from dried and dyed Pandanus (screwpine) leaves, batik cloths, woodcarvings and other crafts and souvenirs at Crafts Complex (Jalan Pintasan), Sungai Karang and Cherating Village. Witness how traditional fabrics are made at Batik RM in Tanah Putih and Pahang Silk Weaving Centre in Pulau Keladi. Major shopping malls can be found in Pahang's capital city, Kuantan, namely Kuantan Parade, Kuantan Plaza, Berjaya Megamall, East Coast Mall and Teruntum Complex.

Dining

Deliciously aromatic, some of Pahang's traditional dishes are said to have been created for past royalty. Pahang's local offerings such as Mi Calong, Laksa Pahang, Opor Pahang, Puding Raja, Jeneral Mahbob, Akok Beserah and Nasi Perik Ker (Pitcher Plant Rice) are worth trying when visiting this state. The best places to find authentic Pahang specialities are Jerantut, Kuala Lipis, Temerloh and Pekan. Temerloh, famous for its silver catfish-based dishes, is also known as Bandar Ikan Patin (Silver Catfish Town).

Getting Here

Kuantan is situated about 260km from Kuala Lumpur, which is approximately 3 1/2 hours' drive via the East Coast Highway. Its Sultan Ahmad Shah Airport in Kuantan receives both international and domestic flights from Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA), Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport in Subang and most capital cities all over the country. Air-conditioned express buses to Pahang are also available, departing from the Putrajaya Bus Terminal and Hentian Pekelling. Keretapi Tanah Melayu or Malaysian Railway provides rail services to Mentakab and Kuala Lipis from Kuala Lumpur and Kota Bharu in Kelantan.

Getting Around

Buses and taxis are readily available around Kuantan. Taxis can be found at the city's main hubs such as Kompleks Teruntum, Berjaya Megamall and Jalan Mahkota. To reach other towns in Pahang, outstation buses are available at Terminal Makmur. Tioman Island is accessible by boat and ferry from Tanjung Gemok in Pahang and Mersing in Johor, and by Berjaya Air's daily direct flights from the Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport in Subang and also from Singapore.
