Shopping

Selangor is one of the leading shopping destinations in the country. Popular malls include Sunway Pyramid, winner of the Innovative Shopping Centre (Integrated) award at the 19th Malaysia Tourism Awards 2014/15 as well as Mitsui Outlet Park, a factory outlet shopping mall that offers branded items at attractive prices. The state's exciting line-up of malls also includes IOI City Mall in Sepang, 1Utama and IKEA in Damansara, Atria Shopping Gallery in Petaling Jaya, Setia City Mall and SACC Mall in Shah Alam, Setia Walk in Puchong and The MINEs in Seri Kembangan.

Dining

Selangor is a macrocosm of Malaysia, where people from the 13 states converge to work and live harmoniously. The potpourri is evident in the abundance of food choices, ranging from Asam Pedas, Melaka to Laksa, Johor, Nasi Dagang, Kelantan, Nasi Kandar, Penang and other iconic dishes from around the country. Selangor is also known as the 'Satay State' for the wide availability of satay, a delicacy of grilled meat on skewers, served with fresh cucumber slices and a tasty peanut sauce.

Getting There

Selangor is the location of the main entry points to Malaysia. The Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) and KLIA 2 are both located in Selangor. Malaysia Airlines, the national carrier, operates from KLIA while KLIA 2 is the hub for low-cost carriers such as AirAsia. The Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport is also located in Selangor. Its Skyport Terminal serves Firefly, Berjaya Air and private charters. Malindo Air operates from both KLIA and Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport.

An excellent network of roads provides easy access to Selangor from any part of the country. Selangor is connected to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's capital city, via the Federal Highway and other ring roads. The country's largest port, Port Klang, is also situated in Selangor. Passengers arriving via the luxury Star Cruises liners disembark at the Pulau Indah Terminal while visitors from Indonesia arrive at the Passenger Cruise Terminal in South Point.

Getting Around

Getting around Selangor is very convenient as it is linked by buses, taxis and trains. The KTM Komuter train provides access to towns such as Klang, Subang, Batu Caves, Kajang and Shah Alam. Additionally, the RapidKL LRT train connects visitors to places such as Kelana Jaya and Bandar Tasik Selatan. Taxis can be hailed at all taxi stands. Call taxis are available to most destinations including for airport transfers.

HERITAGE WALK, KLANG
Said to be the oldest town in Selangor, Klang is characterised by heritage buildings and quaint traditional structures. In the past, Klang was the royal capital of the state and one of the most important tin mining areas in the peninsula. Its heritage quarters can be visited on foot via a heritage walk. There are 18 heritage sites including the Klang Railway Station, Raja Mahadi Fort, a Victorian-style fire station, the Royal Gallery, a church, a Hindu temple and a Buddhist temple. Trail maps are available at most tourist information centres.

LITTLE INDIA, KLANG
Said to be the biggest Indian enclave in the country, Little India in Klang is a paradise for shoppers who enjoy browsing through Indian-inspired items. The labyrinth of streets along Jalan Tunku Kelana is lined by shops selling everything from traditional Indian outfits, accessories such as bangles, necklaces and earrings to garlands made of fresh flowers and home décor items. The town takes a festive atmosphere during Indian festivals when shoppers make a bee-line to this town.
