The best shopping experiences in Terengganu revolve around its cultural heritage and vibrant cottage industries. An endless array of shops selling all kinds of local products can be found at the Payang Central Market and Bazar Warisan in Kuala Terengganu's city centre. Souvenir items include Terengganu handicrafts such as silverware, batik, songket, brassware as well as woven pandanus mats and baskets.

Terengganu serves up a tempting variety of local delicacies which can be found almost everywhere in the state. Western cuisine is available at hotels while fast food outlets can be found in most major towns. Terengganu is well known for rice-based dishes such as nasi dagang with gulai ikan tongkol (spiced rice with spicy tuna curry), nasi kunyit (glutinous rice cooked in coconut milk and turmeric) and nasi kerabu (rice mixed with various herbs, spices and vegetables). Other must-try local delicacies here are the keropok lekur (crackers made from a mixture of fish and sago), laksam (flat rice noodles in a rich fish gravy) and budu (fermented anchovies).

Terengganu is accessible via an interconnected network of expressways and roads from all major towns and cities in Peninsular Malaysia. The state is also easily accessible by air with Malaysia Airlines and AirAsia offering daily flights from Kuala Lumpur to the Sultan Mahmud Airport in Kuala Terengganu, just 14km from the city centre. Besides daily flights to Kuala Terengganu from Penang, Firefly also flies to Kerteh in Kemaman from Subang. Berjaya Air operates daily direct flights from Kuala Lumpur to Redang Island.

Getting around Kuala Terengganu is a breeze as Heritage C shuttle buses ply a fixed route past the city's top attractions. The starting point is at Taman Syahbandar, where visitors can choose from the two routes available. Taxis are also easily available in the city and major towns. Brightly-decorated trishaws are another attraction in Kuala Terengganu.

MALAYSIA

Situated in the heart of Southeast Asia, Malaysia is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and verdant national parks that are teeming with numerous species of birds and wildlife. Malaysia's sun-drenched islands and beaches are home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks and heritage buildings. There is something to charm every visitor, be it a history-lover, nature-enthusiast, sun-seeker or an avid shopper. Explore the length and breadth of the country to discover the many attractions of Malaysia!

Terengganu

A treasure trove of natural and cultural wonders, Terengganu is often fittingly referred to as the "Gem of the East Coast." Visitors will be captivated by its unspoiled landscape, dotted with quaint small towns, rustic coastal villages and verdant greenery. To sun and sea lovers, it is the gateway to some of Malaysia's most beautiful islands where diving and other leisure activities abound. Bordered by the South China Sea to the east, it boasts a 244km coastline, the longest in Peninsular Malaysia. Deeply rooted in traditional Malay culture, Terengganu showcases a variety of crafts, from boat building to batik printing.

Pantai Kemasik is much more than just a beautiful beach with interesting rock formations. Situated nearby is a traditional fishing village where visitors can observe a simpler yet fascinating way of life. As traditional beach fishing is still practised here, visitors will also have the opportunity to try their hand at pulling in fishing nets on the beach.

PANTAI TELUK MAK NIK

Teluk Mak Nik, sometimes referred to as Monica Bay, is an important nesting ground for green turtles. Located by the beach, the turtle sanctuary houses a hatchery where visitors can learn more about conservation efforts and view cute newborn hatchlings. Not surprisingly, the main activities here are turtle watching and helping to release turtle hatchlings back into the wild.
